

CURYUNG TRIBAL COUNCIL JOB DESCRIPTION

ON-CALL COVID LABORER

JOB OBJECTIVE:

Perform on-call labor duties in response to COVID-19, as directed by the Tribal Administrator.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- High School Diploma or Equivalent
- At least one year experience in the construction industry, including experience in one or more of the following trades; Carpentry, Heavy Equipment Operation, Plumbing, Electrical, Pipe/Utility Installation, Concrete Work, or Welding.
- Have good teamwork skills and attitude.
- Ability to work with others or in a group.
- Ability to communicate with supervisors, other employees, and Management.
- Willingness to work in a variety of situations on the job or at the jobsite.
- Able to carry equipment and supplies up to 100 pounds.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work under the direction of the Tribal Administrator to perform tasks assigned.
- Assist with various manual labor tasks in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Perform a variety of heavy and light manual labor tasks and provide craftsman assistance.
- Move, lift, carry, and handle supplies, equipment, building materials, etc.
- Load and unload from vehicles.
- Shovel, wheelbarrow, clean, and care for tools, materials and equipment.
- Clean up work areas, remove trash and debris as needed.
- Observe and comply with all Federal, State, and local ordinances.
- Work with project staff and Housing Manager to promote safe and healthy work environment.

WAGES: DOE – Temporary On-Call, As Needed

REPORTS TO: Tribal Administrator